This force is considered sufficient for the present, but if others are required the Navy Department will not hesitate to send them. Cienfuegos reported to the Navy Department to-day that the Dixie had left a force of 225 marines at that place, and he believed that this number together with the 120 jackies from the Marietta would be sufficient to protect American interests and prevent the insurgents from repeating their raids upon the sugar estates in that

The State Department had no despatches from Havana to-day, except one of a private character from Assistant Secretary of State Bacon. It is explained at the Department that Secretary Taft and Mr. Bacon will not communicate with the Department upon matters affecting their mission. They are not diplomatic representatives of this Government in Cuba and could not well report negotiations with the insurgents without granting them recognition, and so far as the State Department is concerned it knows of no other Government in the island than the regular legalized Government, of which President Palma is the head.

Mr. Taft and Mr. Bacon are the special representatives of the President in the Cuban matter and their communication is direct with him. Arrangements have been so made that the President is in direct touch from Oyster Bay with Mr. Taft in Havana.

Gen. Funston, who since his arrival in Washington yesterday has been in consultation with officials of the War Department regarding plans in the event of intervention in Cuba; will leave Washington to-morrow for Havana. In response to a telegram from Gen. Funston asking if he should proceed immediately to Havana, Secretary Taft to-day wired that he would like to have him come at once.

MADE JOB FOR MURPHY MAN.

Coroners Dismiss Competent Replevin Clerk to Put In Charles O'Connor Cassidy. Another seat at the political pie counter, changed occupants yesterday. The Board of Coroners, all Murphy men, by express order of the Tammany boss, removed Benjamin S. Tindale, replevin clerk in their office. They gave the place to Charles O'Connor Cassidy, who was secretary to George M. Walgrove, Park Commissioner for The Bronx, at $2,400 a year, until Walgrove was removed on September 10 by grove was removed on September 10 by Mayor McClellan.

Tindale was said to be particularly well posted on the business of his office. He was the only man in the Coroners' Office who might be called an adherent of the McClellan faction, but he took very little interest in politics. His crime consisted in living in the Twenty-ninth Assembly district, where Thomas E. Rush, the Mayor's former law partner, is the leader. The job is a difficult one and pays only $1,800. It is unprotected by the civil service law, as it is a fiduciary position.

There was a well defined rumor that Murphy had ordered the Board of Coroners to increase the salary of the job from $1,800 to $2,500 and that President Harburger had denurred on the ground that there were no available funds.

the Brooklyn Senator.

A delegation from the Jefferson Democratic League of Manhattan, headed by Willis B. Dowd, chairman of the committee of twenty-nine appointed to look after the interests of Congressman Sulzer, went over to Brooklyn yesterday for a conference with Senator P. H. McCarren, who will head the delegation of sixty-nine from that borough to the Buffalo convention.

The delegation strongly urged the Senator not to commit the Kings county delegation to the support of Mr. Hearst. Senator McCarren, it is understood, while commending the party loyalty and integrity of Mr. Sulzer, intimated that there was a strong local demand for the nomination of Justice Gaynor.

HEARST BOOM IS COLLAPSING.

HE'S SAID TO HAVE GIVEN UP HOPE OF AN INDORSEMENT.

Murphy Says a Few Kind Words of Sulzer, but Insists That Tammany Is Going to Buffalo Unpledged—He'll Swap Ideas With Sullivan and McCarren Meanwhile.

The sawdust was bursting through every seam of the Hearst boom yesterday. It was even said that Mr. Hearst himself had given up all hope that the regular Democratic State convention at Buffalo would indo se him. While the State convention is in session in the Queen City Mr. Hearst is to take to the sawdust ring with his associate performers on the Independence League ticket in almost every county in the State. They are to skip from county fair to county fair, accompanied by brass bands and jugglers, political and otherwise, and meanwhile the regulars at Buffalo will be doing business.

Very little heed was given yesterday to the utterances of Charles F. Murphy for the reason that it comes from rathe excellent authority that most of Mr. Murphy's remarks within the last week or two have been made for the purpose of veiling his real sentiments.

Mr. Murphy did the nice thing by his old friend Representative William Sulzer yesterday when a sub-committee of Mr. Sulzer's boomers called on Mr. Murphy and asked for Tammany's indorsement of the Sulzer boom. Mr. Sulzer's friends were headed by W. Bruce Dowd, and Mr. Dowd handed out a formal memorial stating all of Mr Sulzer's qualifications as a Democrat and as a faithful public servant.

Mr. Dowd said a few words about Mr. Hearst and took Mr. Hearst to task for criticising the Court of Appeals of the State of New York and all other high judiciary tribunals in the State because the law and the facts did not sustain Mr. Hearst in his controversy that he had been elected Mayor of New York city last fall. Mr. Dowd also called attention to Mr. Hearst's attacks on Attorney-General Mayer when the Attorney-General of the State, as the chief law officer of the State, had decided that according to the law and the evidence Mr. Hearst had no standing in his contention that he had been elected Mayor last fall.

Mr. Dowd went on to say that Mr. Sulzer makes friends everywhere, and that if nominated he would draw largely from the Republicans besides getting most of the labor vote, and it was again pointed out that the Federation of Labor at Binghamton had refused the plea of Mr. Hearst to indorse him.

Mr. Murphy, replying to Mr. Dowd, said: There is nobody in the State of New Assembly district the day following, gave York who would take more delight in seeing Mr. Sulzer nominated and elected Governor than myself. But I must go to Buffalo absolutely unprejudiced, and whoever is selected there will have my hearty support.

Early in the day Mr. Murphy had made the old intimations that there was a good deal of sentiment in Tammany for Hearst, but he did not hesitate to say that he would go to Buffalo unpledged and that nothing definite would be known until the 105 delegates from Tammany held their caucus and decided whom to support in the convention.

James K. McGuire, formerly Mayor of Syracuse, called on Mr. Murphy and told Mr. Murphy that there was a heap of Hearst sentiment in Onondaga county. Mr. McGuire has been absent from his old home in Syracuse most of the time for three years. He has lived in Philadelphia and is a representative of the asphalt trust. Only two weeks ago did he reappear in Syracuse, and it is the result of his recent short visit to his home city, after being absent for so long a time, that of his recent short visit to his home city, after being absent for so long a time, that Mr. McGuire has discovered this great Hearst sentiment in Onondaga.

Mr. Murphy did not seem to be satisfied with Norman E. Mack's reasons for withdrawing his support from Mr. Hearst and declaring for Mayor James N. Adam of Buffalo. Yet all Democrats, friends or otherwise of Mr. Mack said that they or otherwise, of Mr. Mack said that they could not see how he could take any other stand. Mr. Mack is Democratic national committeeman for the State and Mr. Hearst is the candidate of a guerrilla convention which had no other purpose save to bludgeon the regular Democratic organization of the State into indorsing his candidacy. Between now and Monday night, when

Between now and Monday night, when the Tammany delegation will go into caucus at Buffalo, Mr. Murphy, Senator Patrick Henry McCarren, Representative Timothy D. Sullivan and other prominent representatives of the Democratic organizations in all the boroughs of New York city, will have many confabs. organization.

Those in the confidence of Mr. Hearst say that he must get an indorsement for Governor at Buffalo or he cannot proceed further with his Presidential aspirations. Those familiar with such matters say that Mr. Hearst made the mistake of his life when he became a guerrilla candidate for Mayor and later became a guerrilla candidate for Governor, for the reason that in so doing he burned all of his bridges behind him, and he burned all of his bridges behind him, and a failure to be indorsed at Buffalo will mean his utter political annihilation. Furthermore, the vast bales of the long green which were necessary to bring about Mr. Hearst's prominence in 1904 and 1905 and in the present year will have been useless, so far as Mr. Hearst's political ambitions are concerned; but when viewed from a newspaper. cerned; but when viewed from a newspaper advertising scheme Mr. Hearst will have very little to regret.

CALL SENATOR BAILEY TRAITOR. Good Government Club Address Ask

Texas Voters to Defeat Hin Houston, Tex., Sept. 21.-Under the heading "The Shame of Texas" an address to the people of the State was issued las evening by the Harris County Good Government Club, which has about 800 members, and of which H. F. Ring is president. It calls upon voters in all other counties to take action to defeat United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey for reelection. In part

"Joseph W. Bailey is a traitor by his own admission. He tells the people of today that he has been hounded by scandal mongers. We have no malice toward him but by his own words we denounce him as a self-confessed traitor to the people. We only ask that he be judged by his own

Mr. Bailey's speech in the Senate on June 27, in which he defended himself against the attack of the Cosmopolitan Magazine, is reviewed. It is set forth that he brazenly admits his guilt, and that while some Texas papers may attempt to smooth it over business men in all walks of life feel shame for the man who was once their idol. The address then says:

"We believe the newspapers of Texas as a rule are true to the people, but we shall not rely upon them exclusively. From Mr. Bailey's own admission we fear that Standard Oil gold will be freely spent it necessary to return him to the Senate. Half a million copies of this appeal will be distributed in pamphlet form, and with it a list of Texas papers that refuse to publish it.

"When John H. Kirby desired to realiz on some of his investments to whom did he go? To a broker in New York? Oh, no Did he himself go to Harriman or Ryan or to any other great railroad operator and endeavor to interest them? No! He went to Joseph W. Bailey, who posed as a disinterested friend of the people.

"He went to a man whose vote and influence in the Senate could largely assist in making or in the marring of the very men to whom he was trying to sell, men who are a part of the 'system,' powerful financiers who fatten on special privileges or extortionate prices paid by the Postal Department for hauling the mails, on rebates and on every species of monopoly maintained by governmental aid. Men of this class looked with favor upon an opportunity to place Mr. Bailey under obligations to them. They were only too glad for the chance to help Mr. Bailey earn his fee, his lawyer's fee of $225,000 for assisting in the sale of some $3,000,000 worth of property."

Bailey's trip from Washington to Austin in the interest of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which the State had after long and diligent efforts and expenditures of vast sums proved guilty, is reviewed. It is charged that he well knew that the Standard Oil Company was then allied with the Waters-Pierce company and that his crime was not less than that for which ex-Senator Burton was sentenced to prison. In conclusion the address says: "It is inexpressibly sad that this man, so magnificently endowed for leadership and once idolized by every Texan, should have surrendered to the demoralizing influences of his Wall Street associates. But he has sold his birthright for a mess of pottage; he has been morally perverted. We make no comment on the sensational testimony recently given at St. Louis by H. Clay Pierce of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company. In accordance with our intention expressed at the beginning of this address, we have confined ourselves to admissions and state ments by Mr. Bailey."

TAMMANY DISTRICT FIGHTS.

Lively Times Looked for To-night in Three Conventions

At the Tammany Assembly district conventions to be held to-night for the election of delegates to the Democratic State convention there will be contests in three districts, and the indications are that these fights will be of a decidedly lively character. The contests will be in the Seventeenth, Nineteenth and Thirtieth districts. In these three districts the Murphy candidates for the leadership were defeated, but they will endeavor to have their delegates seated at the Buffalo convention. Under the official call for the Assembly conventions the district club houses were designated as the places for hese meetings. Although the result of the primaries makes these clubs, in the three districts named, no longer the headquarters of the regular organization, the law provides that the only way the place of the conventions can be changed is by a resolution of the executive committee a resolution of the executive committee of Tammany Hell.

Charles F. Murphy has been appealed to to call such a meeting in order that the conventions can take place in the headquarters of the new leaders, but he has disregarded the appeal and the outlook in consequence is that there will be trouble to-night in all three of the districts.

In the Seventeenth Matthew F. Dono-hue, who was defeated by Ross Williams, has protested against the recognition of Williams delegates on the ground that votes credited to them were secured fraud and intimidation. To-night' convention is to be held in Donohue's club at 233 West 100th street, and he has let it be known that he will not admit the Williams faction into the club. The Williams supporters, on their part, were threatening last night to invade the place in a body and to force an entrance.

The probability is that after the police have parted the combatants the Williams men will hold a convention of their own and will select three delegates to go to Buffalo. Then it will rest with the committee on contested seats of the Democratic State convention to pass upon the fight.

Similar happenings will take place in the Nineteenth district, where Murphy's candidate. Charler Hahn, was beaten by James Ahearn and in the Thirtieth where Percy Nagle defeated J. F. Cowan, who was beaten by Murphy. Beeth Hahn and Cowan. backed by Murphy. Both Hahn and Cowan charge that they were defeated by fraud and intend to send delegates of their own

PARSONS HAS THE DELEGATES.

Contest in the Fourth With Two Sets of Delegates Going to Saratoga-Row in the Thirteenth-Quigg on a Contesting Delegation-Police on Hand.

Assembly district conventions for the selection of delegates to the Saratoga convention were held by the Republicans last night in this county. The Parsons people, who were victorious at the pri-maries, had things their own way at the conventions in most of the districts. Of the 188 delegates from this county 127 were amed by the Parsons side.

In the First Assembly district, where Francis Orlando beat Mike Hines, the Odell leader at the primaries, the convention last night passed resolutions instructing the four delegates to the State convention to follow the wishes of Herbert Parsons. They also passed resolutions indorsing President Roosevelt and Gov. Higgins.

There were two conventions held in the Fourth district. As a result a contesting delegation will be sent to the State convention, which will bring the contest in the district before the committee on credentials.

The Parsons men did no t attend the convention, which was held at 464 Grand street, the headquarters of Jacob Newstead, the Odell leader, who on the face of the returns won out at the primaries. Instead, they gathered at the headquarters of Philip Rosenthal, the Parsons candidate, at 2 Willett street, and elected these delegates: Philip Rosenthal, John Stiebling, Nor-beth Pfeffer and Max Gaff. The Parsons men said that this delega tion would go to Saratoga, and that when the matter came up before the committee of credentials evidence of frauds at the primaries would be shown which would be sufficient to unseat the Newstead delegates

There was a faint echo of the recent fight in the Twenty-ninth at the conven-iton last night. F. De Witt Wells, who beat Frank Hendrick for the leadership, made a speech in which he declared he was for Parsons first, last and all the time. He said that Odell was no more and that therefore all differences should be buried. Despite this plea for harmony Julius Goldberg, a delegate, nominated an opposing ticket headed by Mr. Hendrick. After some argument as to how the vote should be taken on the two tickets in order to conform to the law Mr. Hendrick got up and asked Goldberg to withdraw the opposition ticket, which was finally done.

The warmest time was at the convention held at 838 Ninth avenue, in the Thirteenth district, where James J. Hahn, the Odell man, asserts that he beat J. J. Farrell, the Parsons man, by 109 votes at the primaries. Hahn called the convention at the old headquarters of Charles B. Page, the former leader, whose resignation precipitated the fight in the district. On account of the fear that there would be trouble a squad of police were sent down to preserve order, but they didn't altogether succeed. According to the Hahn men, they elected at the primaries 46 delegates, to 33 for the other side. Hahn said that his election had been recognized by Herbert Parsons, and that Parsons had delegated him to call the convention. At the start the Hahn men were in the majority, and a man named Shannon was selected by Hahn to call the convention to order. Then John Fester, convention to order. Then John Fester, a Hahn man, was elected temporary chairman and a man named Hedge as temporary secretary. The Farrell side had been getting recruits, and just at this point there were cries of "Put Shannon out!"

This started a big row. According to the Hahn men, Shannon was carried out bodily and thrown downstairs. The Farrell men received to have averything their own way seemed to have everything their own way then, and, according to the Hahn side, no Hahn man was allowed to talk. Things got up to such a pitch finally that Fester, the temporary chairman, threw down his gavel and walked out, after calling on John W. Noble, a Farrell man, to

After the Hahn men left, the Farrell men had things all their own way and elected five delegates, whom they declared were regular. Then, according to Hedge, they forced him to sign the credentials of these delegates as secretary.

The Hahn men went over to Hahn's head-quarters, at 105 West Sixtieth street, where they held a convention at which Hahn said there were 46 delegates present, a ma-jority of those entitled to vote for the delegation to the State convention. These are the delegates elected by the Hahn men: John J. Hahn, George Fentrick, Gilchrist Stewart, Samuel Kerr and Lemuel E. Quigg. The placing of Quigg on the ticket is evi-The placing of Quigg on the ticket is evidently an attempt to get Quigg seated as a delegate in the State convention, although he does not belong in Hahn's district.

BROOKLYN MEN FOR SARATOGA. Republicans Elect Delegates and Woodruff Rides Strong in Control. The Republican Assembly district conventions for the election of delegates to the State convention from Brooklyn were held last night. The choice in each case was made in accordance with the result of the primaries on last Tuesday, in which Timothy L. Woodruff won a sweeping victory over the Odell-Quigg-Dady combination.

The delegation to Saratoga, numbering 138, will be practically under the control of Mr. Woodruff. The combined vote of the four districts—the First, Third, Seventh and Thirteenth—carried by the opposition, amounts to twenty only, but Charles S. Devoy, who is in control in the Seventh, has announced his purpose to act with the majority of the delegation, so that the strength of the three remaining districts, if united, would only be 16, as against 122 massed in support of the county organization. tion.
This is the list of delegates to Saratoga:

Some of the delegates are going to Saratoga to-day, and all of them will be on the scene on Monday night, when Mr. Woodruff will hold a caucus of the delegation. TO-NIGHT IS PARSONS NIGHT. He'll Be Reelected County Chairman,

Though Odell Had Planned Otherwise. The Republican county committee will meet to-night to reorganize. The resolution changing the usual date for the annua meeting from December to this date was passed at the June meeting by direction of Mr. Odell, who at that time thought he would have no difficulty in regaining control of the committee and who me to Saratoga with the prestige of having brought the committee once more under his domination and of having ousted Chair-

To-night's meeting will be a very different To-night's meeting will be a very different one from that which Mr. Odell had planned. The meeting will be a somewhat formal affair. Mr. Parsons will be reelected chairman and the other officers will be reelected also. Beyond this the only other business of any importance likely to come up will be the receiving of protests from the defeated candidates for leadership in the Third, Fourth, Seventh, Thirteenth and wenty-ninth districts against the seating of the delegates who were elected on their opponents' tickets. The protestants will opponents' tickets. The protestants will allege fraud. The protests will be referred to a special committee to take evidence.

HEAR THE SULZER MEN TALK. The y Have 279 Delegates Already and Expect to Win on First Ballot.

William P. Mitchell, chairman of the Sulzer committee, said last night that George F. Scannell and Joseph Prendergast, the joint Murphy leaders of the Twenty-fifth district, had called at Tammany Hall yesterday and informed Mr. Murphy that as delegates from their district to the Democratic State convention they would support the Sulzer movement. Mr. Mitchell went on to say:

Mitchell went on to say:

"We are in a position to assert positively that we have 279 of the delegates to the State convention who are friendly to the nomination of Mr. Sulzer. To my mind, and to the minds of Mr. Sulzer's friends, there is no question but that Mr. Sulzer will be nominated on the first ballot. We think also that it is safe to predict that at the caucus in Buffalo on Monday night it will be found that Mr. Murphy and Mr. McCarren will come out for Mr. Sulzer, because it will be impressed upon them that he will be the only candidate who will be able to unify the fighting factions in this city." in this city.'

James A. Emerson for Stat e Senator. GLENS FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 21.-James A. Emerson was to-day nominated by the Republicans for Senator from the Thirtysecond district, embracing Warren, Mont-gomery and Fulton-Hamilton counties. Mr. Emerson is prominent in business affairs of northern New York. He is cashier of the Warrensburg Bank and identified with a dozen manufacturing industries through out Warren county and northern New York. He has never held public office. He is a brother of ex-Congressman L. W.
